

DIVINES JOAILLERIES L'ART DE JOSEPH CHAUMET

From 14 Jun 14 to 4 Jan 15 the Hieron Museum hosts an exhibition devoted to the silversmith and jeweler Joseph Chaumet who made the remarkable National Treasure in the museum, the Via Vitae (1894-1904). "Divines joailleries - l'art de Joseph Chaumet" is an opportunity to bring together an unprecedented documentation about this masterpiece. The outstanding loan of jewelry and objets d'art, some of which having never been exposed before, contributes to put the light on this amazing art piece made of different marbles, alabaster and precious stones, and joining the arts of sculpture, metalwork and jewelry.
